SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

The shift was very busy, with a continuous flow of high-priority calls. Officers managed a total of 11 reports during this period. The most significant call involved an aggravated assault. During the investigation, officers determined that a male suspect had thrown a large rock at his girlfriend during an argument, causing serious injuries to the victim. The suspect later turned himself in at the police department and was booked into county jail on felony charges of assault with a deadly weapon and felony domestic battery.

SHIFT: SWING SHIFT

Sgt. Fortado

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 8

CATEGORIES

1 Violation of Court Order	1 Lost Property	2 Warrant Arrest
2 Accident Non-Injury	1 Larceny in Custody	1 Harassment / Threats

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Dayshift had over 10 calls for service pending when we started briefing. We had a very fast briefing and immediately started assisting dayshift with calls for service. Officers did a great job handling the calls for service and by the time dayshift was securing, calls for service were at a manageable number. Officers responded to an injury accident where a driver of a vehicle drove into a residence. Luckily there were minimal injuries only to the driver.

SHIFT: GRAVEYARD SHIFT

Sgt. M. Parmley

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 5

CATEGORIES

1 Suspicious Incident
1 Residential Burglary

1 Aggravated Assault
1 Traffic Offense

1 Warrant Arrest

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

The shift started off busy and slowed down a few hours into the night. Officers took five report calls, making two arrests. One was booked for public intoxication after being involved in physical altercation with family and the other was booked for having multiple warrants with a history of failures to appear in court. Nothing else significant to report out on.
