SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Steady shift during the swing shift hours. Officers stopped a juvenile on an electric dirt bike with another juvenile on the front of it. Neither were wearing helmets and they were riding in the roadway and on the sidewalk. During a record check of the juvenile driving, it was determined he had a felony warrant out of county. He was arrested and booked into juvenile hall. An officer working a special detail contacted a subject who had a felony warrant for his arrest. He was arrested and booked into jail. Another officer working a separate detail contacted a female who had multiple warrants for her arrest. She was arrested and booked into jail.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Tonight is our last night of our workweek and again tonight Officers who did not completed the training shoot last night cleared briefing early to do so. Officers observed a male in a gas station parking lot who they knew to have a warrant. Officers contacted the male and confirmed he had a felony warrant. The male was placed under arrest and booked into Jail. Officers responded to an assault at a motel. Officers located the suspect at his residence and he was placed under arrest. Officers were busy until about 0300 hours when calls for service slowed way down.
